Dear Colleagues,
Dear Friends,

Recently we have recognized that the Coronavirus situation in Europe gets increasingly urgent. With this email, I, on behalf of the China-CEE Institute, would like to extend our deep sympathies to you and your countries over the COVID-19 outbreak and express our strong solidarity with all of you. We strongly hope and believe that we together, under close international cooperation, will win the battle over the Coronavirus outbreak.

After almost two months determinate and solid efforts, the Coronavirus situation in China is now under good control. Since the outbreak of the epidemic, our European partners and friends have been enormously supportive of China's efforts to curb the situation. Although the virus spreads ruthlessly, one thing is quite clear that we are not alone in fighting the epidemic. We appreciated continuous support, sympathy and solidarity from our European partners. Now the situation in Europe is concerned. In the same spirit of brotherhood, China-CEE Institute has the honor to express our determination to be with you and to face the challenge together.

Stay strong and stay safe!

Kind regards,

Dr.CHEN Xin
Executive President and Managing Director
China-CEE Institute
