

CALL FOR PAPERS

BY CHINA-CEE INSTITUTE

1. Introduction to China-CEE Institute

China-CEE Institute, registered as a non-profit limited company in Budapest, was established by Chinese Academy of Social Sciences in April 2017. China-CEE Institute aims to build ties and strengthen partnerships with academic institutions and think tanks in Hungary and other CEE countries as well as other European countries.

China-CEE Institute encourages scholars and researchers from CEE countries to carry out joint research and field studies, to (co-)organize seminars and lecture series, and to launch some training programs for students, newly established researchers, etc.

2. Requirements for the Call

- 1). Topic: “Green Silk Road and China-Europe Cooperation amid the Profound Changes in the World Situation”. In the face of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, international cooperation under the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) has shown strong resilience and vitality. With its international partners, China has the ambition of making the Belt and Road a model of cooperation, health, recovery and growth through united responses to global challenges and developing a “Green Silk Road”. Green is a major element of the BRI initiative. Over the years, China has actively integrated green ecological concept into the joint construction of the BRI and improved the green level in the areas of policy communication, facility connectivity, unimpeded trade, financial integration, and people-to-people bonds. Therefore, the role of the Green Silk Road in China-EU cooperation amid the profound changes in the world situation deserves intensive discussions among all parties. Each applicant is supposed to give a clear and scientific elucidation of the topic in the abstract.
